Program for the international "Connect!" symposium at the HdBA Mannheim

Dear Sir or Madam,

On 28.7.2022, 10:00 am - 4:30 pm, within the framework of the project "Connect! - Connecting Career Counseling and Human Resource Development in Enterprises" at the University of Applied Labour Studies of the Federal Employment Agency, a symposium will be held on the topic of career guidance in a corporate context. Experts and actors in the field of guidance and human resources development are invited.

The International event is the final conference and the presentation of our results. We want to reach many experts from Europe and stimulate discourse on this truly relevant topic. We invite you and other experts to participate in the presentations and discussions.

In addition to expert presentations and various examples from the research done within the project, the context of counseling in and near companies, possibilities and limitations will be discussed in a workshop part.

If you want to present your work in career guidance, human resource development, vocational education or related topics, we invite you to take part in the poster presentation.

The conference is held in english. Workshops are also offered in German.

Visit our conference webpage for more information and registration <https://connect-erasmus.eu/conference/>.
